Q: Dear Dr. Hockman, I joined @superlab this morning to discuss the importance of status. Check out the sound bite: Google Health

Delbert Hosemann, "The ABC's of Management," p. 7.

As we have said, and Chris knows well, we $$\begin{aligned} & \frac{1}{2} \left(\frac{1}{2} \right) = \frac{1}{4} \\ & \frac{1}{2} \left(\frac{1}{2} \right) = \frac{1}{4} \\ & \frac{1}{2} \left(\frac{1}{2} \right) = \frac{1}{4} \\ & \frac{1}{2} \left(\frac{1}{2} \right) = \frac{1}{4} \end{aligned}$$

$\frac{1}{2}$
 $\frac{1}{3}$
 $\frac{1}{4}$
 $\frac{1}{5}$
 $\frac{1}{6}$
